

SOHEE JUN Ph.D.

LEADERSHIP EXPERT & COACH

"Each person is uniquely talented. My role is to partner with them to help uncover what's getting them stuck, so that they can implement strategies to reach their maximum potential."

- Sohee Jun, Ph.D.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

- 1x1 Leadership Coaching
- Group Coaching for Teams
- Team & Company Workshops
- Speaking Engagements

EDUCATION/CREDENTIALS:

- Ph.D. and Masters in Organizational Psychology, Alliant International University
- Bachelor of Science, Psychology, University of Arizona
- Certifications in various leadership and assessment tools

CONTACT:

626.354.6708

SOHEEJUNPHD.COM

SOHEEJUNPHD@GMAIL.COM

EXPERIENCE: As an executive coach and leadership development expert, Sohee works with emerging leaders and executives to unleash their untapped power for themselves and their teams. During her 20 years in the corporate world, she has helped leaders transform themselves from frustrated executives to insightful, impactful and inspired leaders who are engaging employees in exciting new ways and driving their organizations to great success.

Sohee works with world-renowned Fortune 500 companies in Entertainment, Gaming, Financial Services and Engineering — helping high performing leaders, emerging leaders and executive teams identify and strategically capitalize upon moments of shift and challenge as opportunities for powerful growth and change.

Most recently, Sohee served as Executive Director of Organization Development and Change Management at Warner Bros. Entertainment. She previously held internal leadership positions at Countrywide Financial Corporation and Jacobs Engineering Group as well as various HR consulting positions at Jet Propulsion Laboratory and Washington Mutual.

As a passionate expert, Sohee helps her clients hone their vision, realize their full potential, create synergy throughout their organization, and make positive, lasting differences.